University Preparatory English

- UP-English has been divided into three 4-week half-courses (UP-English A, B, and C). However, it is possible to complete the program in two sessions.
- Each half course is a complete and independent unit.
- Students may take the three half courses in any order.
- To satisfy their university English admission requirement, students must meet the requirements of the courses
- If students do not meet the requirements of the courses, they will receive an Incomplete (not Fail), and may take another UP-English course until they meet all the requirements.
- UP-English C will be offered every whenever a UP-A session is offered.
